

What is Hypnotherapy?

Hypnotherapy, as practised by well qualified experienced therapists, is an effective treatment for a wide range of conditions.

It utilises the natural and normal (but powerful) state of deep relaxation (hypnosis) to access the deeper levels of the mind so that you can achieve your goals.

Managing Anxiety, Stress or Panic

How can hypnotherapy help?

In the first instance, hypnotherapy can help with anxiety and panic attacks as your therapist can help you gain a really good understanding of what is happening to you. This, along with feeling understood by the therapist can help you make progress.

Then, your therapist will employ one or more of a wide range of hypnotherapeutic techniques which can help you to experience less anxiety and fewer panic attacks, and to cope significantly better when the feelings do occur.

Is it time for you to learn a new response to stressful situations?

The process of relieving the fear of having the feelings is often the key to significant change.

Anxiety is a natural, normal and necessary protection mechanism: but is yours just too much?

Once you feel more confident in your ability to cope, and less anxious about being anxious, you will just get better and better!

Sometimes, and only with your agreement, a therapist may recommend looking back at past experiences to assist you to deal with the causes of anxiety issues.

This can be very helpful but is not always required.

Frequently asked questions:

Q. Will I be aware of what is happening and will I remember everything?

A. Yes to both

Q. Will you re-programme my mind?

A. This is an outdated concept of hypnotherapy— in reality, your therapist helps you to access the resources you already have and helps you to do this for yourself.

Q. What is your success rate?

A. We are not ethically allowed to quote statistics, but all NCSAG practitioners monitor their results to ensure they are offering the best service.

Q. Do you guarantee success?

A. It is never possible to guarantee human behaviour, but we will do all we can to help
